

A Guide for your Christian Life between Sundays

*The First Sunday after Christmas
December 26, 2021 through January 1, 2022*

The Lord commanded his people of old to sacrifice ‘all who open the womb’ unto him, both of livestock and of men. It is a disturbing thought, but it would seem that God commands human sacrifice. Yet immediately after commanding such a sacrifice, he grants that a substitute shall be given in the place of the child, a lamb, just as a ram was given in place of Isaac. Yet a substitute does not do away with the original command, it merely gives a way out. The fact is the Father still desires the sacrifice of a son of man, whole and undefiled. And that sacrifice shall be His Son. To some this thought is hateful. To some, beautiful. To most, confusing. Yet this very idea reveals in us our deepest hopes and fears, even as St. Simeon prophesies to us.

AN ORDER FOR DAILY MEDITATION AND PRAYER

Read the Scriptures appointed for the day, review the readings from Sunday, and learn by heart the appointed verse and portion of the Small Catechism. Conclude with the Psalms, the Collect, and the prayers, using the guidelines as you see appropriate.

A LOOK BACK TO THE LITURGY – DECEMBER 26, 2021

Theme: The birth, life, and death of Christ shall force all mankind to reveal their hearts to him.

Hymn: 375, “Come, Your Hearts and Voices Raising”

Summary of Readings:

Exodus 13:1-3a, 11-15: By requiring His people to redeem every firstborn among their sons by the sacrifice a lamb, God not only points backward to their rescue from Egypt, but forward to the day when His own Firstborn Son would pay the redemption price that takes away the sin of the world.

Colossians 3:12-17: St. Paul writes, “As the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive,” showing us that the way of love and peace among us comes from receiving God’s gifts, then sharing God’s gifts “in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”

Luke 2:22-32: This account begins under the Law which requires Mary’s purification and Jesus’ presentation before the Lord. However, it is the Gospel that shines forth in Simeon’s song as God in Christ returns to His Holy Temple, shining the light of His salvation as the Redeemer of the world, to be the true beloved Son of Man.

MEMORY VERSE TO LEARN BY HEART:

John 6:54: “Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.”

THE CATECHISM: THE LORD'S PRAYER: FIRST PETITION I

(Important! If you have memorized a different translation in confirmation, it is best to pull out your old catechism and refresh your memory from those texts.)

Hallowed be Thy name.

What does this mean? God's name is certainly holy in itself, but we pray in this petition that it may be kept holy among us also.

PSALM OF THE WEEK: PSALM 111 (ESV)

Meditate on this Psalm every day when you pray, and use it as the starting place for your own prayer:

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation. <sup>2</sup>Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them. <sup>3</sup>Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever. <sup>4</sup>He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and merciful. <sup>5</sup>He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever. <sup>6</sup>He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the inheritance of the nations. <sup>7</sup>The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy; <sup>8</sup>they are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness. <sup>9</sup>He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name! <sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

LUTHER'S PRAYER ON PSALM 111<sup>1</sup>:

Praise belongs to You, our God, because You have fulfilled Your promises to Your people Israel in the incarnation of Your Son, and sent the light of Your truth to our fathers when they were walking in ignorance of You. Grant us steadfastly to trust Your covenant of grace that we may live therein. Make Your works of mercy and truth known to our children, that they may praise Your name in generations to come. Amen.

COLLECT FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER CHRISTMAS:

O God, our Maker and Redeemer, You wonderfully created us and in the incarnation of Your Son yet more wondrously restored our human nature. Grant that we may ever be alive in Him who made Himself to be like us; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.
