

A Guide for your Christian Life between Sundays

*The Second Sunday of Easter
April 16 through April 22, 2023*

St. Thomas was not wrong to doubt the other disciples. He believed in the incarnation. And so he wanted to know that Christ was risen bodily, not just spiritually. So he demands that he be able to touch the body of the Lord. This he was granted by Christ, and so too we are granted the same thing in the holy Sacrament of the Eucharist.

AN ORDER FOR DAILY MEDITATION AND PRAYER

Read the Scriptures appointed for the day, review the readings from Sunday, and learn by heart the appointed verse and portion of the Small Catechism. Conclude with the Psalms, the Collect, and the prayers, using the guidelines as you see appropriate.

A LOOK BACK TO THE LITURGY – APRIL 16, 2023

Theme: We receive the risen Lord in the sacrament bodily.

Hymn: 472, “These Things Did Thomas Count as Real”

Summary of Readings:

Acts 5:29-42: On trial for preaching Christ crucified and risen for the forgiveness of sins, St. Peter declares, “We must obey God rather than men,” and continues teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ, despite the persecution that is certain to follow.

1 Peter 1:3-9: We have been born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead – a hope that fills us with great joy, even in the midst of our trials as we await the goal of our faith, the salvation of our souls.

John 20:19-31: Our risen Lord Jesus Christ comes to His disciples on the first day of the week, revealing Himself in flesh and blood, speaking His Word that gives peace through the forgiveness of sins, and strengthening the faith of all who receive Him (Thomas included), that they may continue His work of salvation for the life of the world.

MEMORY VERSE TO LEARN BY HEART:

Acts 14:22: “Continue in the faith. We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God.”

THE CATECHISM: THE FIRST AND SECOND COMMANDMENTS

(Important! If you have memorized a different translation in confirmation, it is best to pull out your old catechism and refresh your memory from those texts.)

*What is the First Commandment? You shall have no other gods.

What does this mean? We should fear, love, and trust in God above all things.

*What is the Second Commandment? You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God.

What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not curse, swear, use satanic arts, lie, or deceive by His name, but call upon it in every trouble, pray, praise, and give thanks.

PSALM OF THE WEEK: PSALM 148 (ESV)

Meditate on this Psalm every day when you pray, and use it as the starting place for your own prayer:

¹Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights!
²Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his hosts! ³Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars! ⁴Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens! ⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD! For he commanded and they were created. ⁶And he established them forever and ever; he gave a decree, and it shall not pass away. ⁷Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all deeps, ⁸fire and hail, snow and mist, stormy wind fulfilling his word! ⁹Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars! ¹⁰Beasts and all livestock, creeping things and flying birds! ¹¹Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth! ¹²Young men and maidens together, old men and children! ¹³Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his majesty is above earth and heaven. ¹⁴He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the LORD!

LUTHER'S INTRODUCTION TO PSALM 148¹:

The 148th Psalm is a Psalm of thanks that excites and exhorts all creatures in heaven and earth to praise God – especially His saints who worship Him, that is, have His Word and worship. Rightfully, all of creation should be nothing but a tongue, always praising this great goodness of God. If you want to know how good a thing is, then take whatever you will and say: “If there were no fire...” or “If there were no sun...”; “If there were no woman...”; and so on. Then you will see why one should thank God.”

COLLECT FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER:

Almighty God, grant that we who have celebrated the Lord's resurrection may by Your grace confess in our life and conversation that Jesus is Lord and God; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

LUTHER'S MORNING OR EVENING PRAYER

Luther's Morning Prayer:

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.
